From thn Harlem Courant, dated July 20.

Vienua, July 7.

LEtters from Barcelona of the 9th of June adviſe, that the 31ſt of May the ſick and wounded that were left behind by the Enemy in the Canvent of Gracia without the City, to the number of 470, were embark'd for Toulon to be exchang'd for a like number of Priſoners taken from the Allies. The 1ſt of June 900 Men were ſent to Girone, to ſtrengthen that Garriſon, [1300 Men were before ſent thither, the 27th of May.] The 2d Major General Stanhope ſet out for that Place, to put the Town and Caſtle into a good ſtate of Defence; and to give Directions for fortifying the Paſſes by which the Enemy might attempt to make Incurſions from Rouſſillon: The like Care is taken for ſecuring all the other Forts, Towns, and Paſſes in Catalonia, and particularly Lerida. Girone was provided with 14 pieces of Cannon laſt Winter, and a like number and 5 Mortars were on the 2d ſent thither. The 4th an end was made of levelling the Enemy's Approaches and Works between the Town of Barcelona and Fort Montjuich; and the reſt of the Bombs, Granadoes, and Bullets left by the Enemy were fetch'd into the Town. The 5th Advice came from Valencia, that the Count de las Torres with 2000 Foot, 1500 Horſe, and 6 pieces of Cannon laid Siege to Xativa the 15th of May: A Battery being rais'd, thoſe 6 Cannon began to fire the 17th. There were but 100 Men regular Forces in the Place, commanded by General Don Baſſet y Ramos, yet thoſe joyn'd by ſome Militia and the Burghers, repuls'd the Enemy in an Aſſault they made the 20th, killing above 4000 of them, among them Don Antonio Leiva, Collonel Ronchiglio, and Don Antonio Eſcriva Brother of the Count de Alcudia Viceroy of Majorca: Don Franciſco de Rocaful, who was Governour of the Place when it ſubmitted to the Obedience of King Charles III, was mortally wounded. The 22d the Count de las Torres ſummon'd the Town to ſurrender, but Don Baſſet return'd Anſwer that he had rather ſacrifice his Life, than give up to the Enemy any Place where he commanded. That Day a Supply of Men and Proviſions ſent from Valencia by the Viceroy, got into the Place. The 23d both ſides continued firing very vigorouſly; the 24th the Enemy drew off and retir'd to Orighuela, having loſt 1500 Men kill'd or wounded in the Siege. The 6th his Catholick Majeſty diſpatch'd Aſſeſſors of the Royal Audience to regulate the Adminiſtration of Juſtice in the ſeveral Towns of Catalonia. The 8th Baron Marialba was ſent to Lerida to view the Fortifications of that Place.

From the Paris Letter, dated July 16.

Paris, July 16. The Duke de Noailles, who is at Perpignan, is drawing together the Troops he has under his Command, to make an Irruption into the Spaniſh Cerdagne; in which Country he may more commodiouſly ſubſiſt his Horſe and Dragoons, the march of the Army having conſum'd the greateſt part of the Forrage of Rouſſillon. The Body he commands being compos'd of 9 Battallions, 43 Companies detach'd from ſeveral Regiments, 54 Companies of Miquelets, 6 Battallions of Militia of the Province, and 15 Squadrons of Horſe and Dragoons, 'Tis hop'd he will make a conſiderable Diverſion.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 17.

From the Camp before Turin, July 7. The 1ſt of this Month, the Marquis de Marcilly, who commands in the Lines between the lower Po and the Doria, took and carried off 250 head of large Cattle, which were deſign'd for the Subſiſtance of the Garriſon of Turin, and were at Paſture juſt without the Works of the Suburbs of Balon, whence the Enemy made an extraordinary Fire with Cannon and Muſquets; which hindred the carrying off the reſt of the Cattle in number about 300. The Night between the 1ſt and 2d a new Battery of Mortars was begun on the Right. The following Days the Works were carried on. The 6th our Miners having diſcover'd a Mine of the Beſieged, fill'd theirs, and blew it up. It threw up a great deal of Earth, which contributed to the making of a Lodgment there with the greater Facility. Deſerters continue to come over to us in great number. Advice is juſt come, that the Duke de la Feuillade has ſurpriz'd Mondovi, and taken Priſoners in it the Prince and Princeſs of Carignan with the Princes their Children, and ſeveral other Perſons of Note. The Duke of Savoy was then with his Horſe about Coni, and the Dutcheſs of Savoy with the Princes is at Savona in the State of Genoa. The Duke de la Feuillade return'd Yeſterday to this Camp, to receive the Duke of Orleans who is expected to morrow. He has left 45 Squadrons under the Command of the Count d'Aubeterre, with Orders to purſue the Duke of Savoy, who was Yeſterday morning at Saluces. The Marquis de Goesbriand is about Coni, with ſome Foot and Horſe. The Count d'Eſtain who is in the Town of Aſti, is attacking the Caſtle. The Marquis de Marignane has taken the Town of Ceva and laid Siege to the Caſtle, for which Siege the Governour of Final ſends Artillery and Troops.

From the Leiden Courant, dated July 20.

Genua, July 4. The Dutcheſſes of Savoy, with the reſt of his Royal Highneſs's Family and Court, are at Oneglia, and 5 of our Galleys are gone to fetch them from thence to Albenga, where a Palace is fitted up for them. A Felucca that arriv'd here to Day from Barcelona brings Advice, that the whole Kingdom of Valencia has declar'd for King Charles III; and that a Spaniſh Galley that was ſent with Money to Ceuta, having done the like, was come to Denia.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated July 20.

From the Camp before Turin, July 7. Laſt Night our Ingenier Maqui was ſhot dead, and M. de Villars ſars Lagien wounded in the Head. The Duke of Savoy is at preſent between Pigiar and Saluces not far from Lazerne; 'Tis endeavour'd to cut him off from Coni, and M. d'Aubeterre commands the Detachment that obſerves him. The Duke de la Feuillade will go back with ſome Troops from this Siege, to joyn M. d'Aubeterre and purſue the Duke of Savoy. 2 Battallions are garriſon'd in Mondovi. The Caſtle of Aſti makes a good Defence, and the Count d'Eſtain has been forc'd to ſend for heavy Cannon to Alexandria.

Hague, July 20. Letters from France confirm the Proclamation of King Charles at Madrid; and add, that the ſpeedy Surrender of Oſtend had extremely ſurpriz'd the French Court; and that the Count de Guiſcard, M. d'Artagnan, and other General Officers had been diſgrac'd at Court, for not doing their Duty in the Battle of Ramilly, but that the former ſtands upon his Juſtification. Letters from Barcelona of the 17th of June, (which came by the Way of Genoa,) adviſe, that King Charles III was not then gone from that City, but was to ſet out for Tortoſa the 21ſt. 'Tis preſum'd the Armies in Flanders are joyn'd by this Time, and that Menin will be forthwith beſieg'd. The States have caus'd the following Placard to be publiſh'd, for opening Trade with ſuch Places in the Spaniſh Netherlands as now are, or hereafter ſhall be, under the Obedience of King Charles III.

'THE States General of the united Provinces:

' To all who ſhall read theſe Preſents Greeting.

' Whereas for ſome Years paſt divers Impoſts have ' been eſtabliſh'd in the Spaniſh Netherlands, and Pro- ' hibitions made, in Relation to all ſorts of Manu- ' factures tranſported thither from the Dominions ' and Dependancies of this State, to the great Pre- ' judice and Dammage of Commerce on both Sides, ' and contrary to the Treaties between the Crown ' of Spain and us; of which we not being able to ' procure any Redreſs, were oblig'd by Way of ' Retaliation to prohibit by our Placards of the 29th ' of June and 14th of October 1699 the Importati- ' on into theſe Countries of ſeveral Merchandizes of ' the Growth or Manufacture of the Spaniſh Ne- ' therlands. And whereas upon the late Change of ' Affairs in the Spaniſh Netherlands, it has been ' deem'd proper to annull thoſe Prohibitions and ' Impoſts, and to take off the Duties of Importa- ' tion and Exportation, according to the general ' Liſt or Tariff (i. e. Book of Rates) of the 21ſt of ' December 1680, as well in the Places that have ' ſubmitted or been reduc'd to the Obediance of ' King Charles III, as in thoſe that ſhall be ſo here- ' after.

' For theſe Cauſes, &c. We have thought good to ' revoke and annull the Prohibitions contain'd in our ' Placards of the 29th of June and 14th of October ' 1699. Done in the Aſſembly of the States Gene- ' ral at the Hague, July 9. 1706.

Whereas Propoſals for Reprinting all the Practical Works of the late Reverend Mr. Richard Baxter, in 4 Volumes in Folio, have for ſome Time been Publiſh'd, the Undertakers having receiv'd incouragement from ſeveral Reverend Divines and others, of the Church of England, and Diſſenters; have now put the ſaid Work to the Preſs, and therefore deſire all ſuch as have obtain'd Subſcriptions, and not yet paid in the firſt Payment, or who are inclin'd to promote ſo good a Work, to haſten the doing of it, to any of the Undertakers, Tho. Parkhurſt, Jonathan Robinſon or John Lawrence, that they may be enabled to finiſh the ſaid Work with all poſſible Expedition.

The Roman Eſſence, a few drops of which dropt in a Baſon of warm Water, and ſet in the middle of a Room, takes away all ill Scents, and Perfumes it to Admiration; it prevents Wrinkles in the Face and Hands, and gives a delightful Flavour, as it doth likewiſe to Shifts, Handkerchiefs and Linnen. It takes away the ill Smell of Soap, and leaves a moſt pleaſant and laſting Odour; and for preſerving the Hair of the Head and Periwigs, it hath not its equal, keeping them from falling off or changing Colour, Strengthens the Hair, and keeps it in the Curl longer than any thing now in uſe; to be had at Mr. Scampton's at the Angel over againſt the Mermaid-Tavern in Cornhill, Mr Osborns at the Roſe and Crown under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet ſtreet, and at Mr. Girards at the 3 Flower-de-luce, near Northumberland-houſe in the Strand, Toy-Ships, and had no been publiſh'd had it not been counterfeited under the ſham Names of Imperial Royal, &c. At 1 s. 6 d. the Bottle, ſeal'd up with Directions.

The Family Eſſence for all manner of Pains and Aches of whatſoever cauſe throughout the whole Body; likewiſe for thoſe who have loſt the uſe of all their Limbs. It gives immediate eaſe and help when all Ordinary means prove inſucceſsful, and ſuddainly takes away the oldeſt Grief. It neither wets like Water, greaſes like Oil, nor ſoils the fineſt Linnen. You cannot uſe it without happy ſucceſs for Weakneſs, Lameneſs, Numbneſs, Trembling or Palſey in any part; likewiſe for the Sciatica and Cramp, it is a very preſent and perfect Cure. Sold at John's Coffee-Houſe in Swithin's-Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleetſtreet, price 2 s. each Viol.

The Incomparable India Dentiffick Roots, only to be had at Thomas Allcrafts a Toy-ſhop at the Sign of the Bluecoat Boy over againſt the Royal Exchange, and at Young-Man's Coffee-Houſe near Chairing-Croſs, price 6 d. each Root. This Root dipped in fair Water, and bruis'd with a Hammer, becomes a ſoft and pleaſant Bruſh to the Teeth and Gums, afterwards pairing away by degrees the outward Rind, wears ſo to the laſt. Its Vertues are beyond any Human Art for cleaning the Teeth, as to bring them to the Whiteneſs of Ivory in a few times uſing; it preſerves your Teeth from corruption and prevents farther decay in any before corrupted, whoever uſes it two or three times a day will ever avoid Tooth-ach, having foul Teeth, or a ſtrong Breath, nor is this Root in its uſe any wiſe offenſive to ſmell or taſte.
